

STUDENT LEADERSHIP SUMMIT

Why are you passionate about student leadership development?

"I am passionate about student leadership development because my time as a student leader and others investing in my development helped shape my career path. I am hoping the work I do around leadership development with students will set them up for success in whatever path they pursue".

Favorite quote:

"Leadership and learning are indispensable to each other." --John F. Kennedy